  - b. How do you gain insight into the needs of your followers?
  - c. Inspire others to see your vision?
  - d. Persuade people to work together to achieve the common goals?
3. Write a response on the following topics:
  - a. What does it mean to be an effective and transformational Catholic school principal/leader?
  - b. What makes me an effective, or potentially effective, Catholic school principal/leader?
4. What is the purpose and aim of Catholic education? Please include two to three citations from key documents, people, or organizations that inform your view of Catholic education.
5. Please select one of the following statements and write a brief response describing the implications of the statement for the Catholic school principal:
  - a. “Catholic schools...are the most effective means available to the Church for the education of children and young people who thus may “grow into manhood according to the mature measure of Christ.” (To Teach as Jesus Did, #118). “Her children, then, will be capable both of resisting the debilitating influence of relativism and of living up to the demands made on them by their Baptism. (The Catholic School, #12).
  - b. “... in fact, since education consists essentially in preparing man for what he must be and for what he must do here below, in order to attain the sublime end for which he was created, it is clear that there can be no true education which is not wholly directed to man's last end...” (Divini Illius Magistri, #7).
  - c. “...for it [education] keeps far away from youth the moral poison which at that inexperienced and changeable age more easily penetrates the mind and more rapidly spreads its baneful effects. For it is true, as Leo XIII has wisely pointed out, that without proper religious and moral instruction "every form of intellectual culture will be injurious; for young people not accustomed to respect God, will be unable to bear the restraint of a virtuous life, and never having learned to deny themselves anything. they will easily be incited to disturb the public order." (Divini Illius Magistri, #24).

- d. "Perfect schools are the result not so much of good methods as of good teachers, teachers who are thoroughly prepared and well-grounded in the matter they have to teach; who possess the intellectual and moral qualifications required by their important office; who cherish a pure and holy love for the youths confided to them, because they love Jesus Christ and His Church, of which these are the children of predilection; and who have therefore sincerely at heart the true good of family and country." (Divini Illius Magistri, #88).

- e. "For precisely this reason, Christian education takes in the whole aggregate of human life, physical and spiritual, intellectual and moral, individual, domestic and social, not with a view of reducing it in any way, but in order to elevate, regulate and perfect it, in accordance with the example and teaching of Christ. Hence the true Christian, product of Christian education, is the supernatural man who thinks, judges and acts constantly and consistently in accordance with right reason illumined by the supernatural light of the example and teaching of Christ; in other words, to use the current term, the true and finished man of character." (Divini Illius Magistri, #95-96).
